Practicing medicine and providing quality health care is your calling. But like many in the profession, the distractions of extensive paperwork and reporting in today's health care environment keep you from fully appreciating the satisfaction that comes with the job.

Air Force Civilian Service (AFCS) offers an alternative.

It's attractive on every level and makes it possible to keep the focus on what you love, not on the paperwork.

Work side by side with highly qualified medical professionals in an effective and efficient healthcare system—a system dedicated to the health and well being of 2.5 million beneficiaries: Our nation's Airmen and their families.

The system relies on 75 state-of-the-art treatment facilities, out-patient clinics, and support centers around the country and around the world.

- Preventive care is a priority.
- Equipment is the very latest.
- Treatment of patients without restrictions on time is a guiding principle.

Our staff enjoy a supportive work environment and are offered continuing education and training to hone skills and stay abreast with the latest treatment techniques. They also enjoy an emphasis on work-life balance where time with family and friends and enjoying pastimes are valued.

Professionally, you couldn't ask for a better and more rewarding experience.

But Wait, There's More.

- Salaries that defy expectations
- Scheduled raises
- Access to premier fitness facilities
- Work-life balance
- Signing bonus may be offered
- Student loan repayment may be considered
